

BUILDING A LEGACY FOR UK HEALTH DATA RESEARCH INFRASTRUCTURE

A showcase event for the Digital Innovation Hub Programme

Tuesday 28 June 2022 - Birmingham

Agenda

Time	Sessions
09:30	Arrival and refreshments
09.50	Welcome from the Chair David Seymour, HDR UK
10.00	Setting the Scene: From data to early diagnosis and precision medicine challenge Janet Valentine, Innovate UK
10.20	Plenary keynote Rory Cellan-Jones, former BBC technology correspondent
11.10	Session 1 – part 1 Providing expert data research and services through the Health Data Research Hubs Chaired by John Jeans, Digital Health and Care Innovation Centre Featuring: Discover-NOW and DATA-CAN Hubs
11:35	Break + Marketplace
11.55	Session 1 – part 2 Featuring: BREATHE, INSIGHT, NHS DigiTrials, Gut Reaction, PIONEER Hubs
13:00	Lunch + Marketplace
14.00	Building the legacy and enabling the future of data research services Featuring DataMIND and Alleviate Hubs
14.35	Reflections and future Impact Mark Walport, Honorary Distinguished Professor of Medicine at Imperial College
14.55	Investing in the future at national scale Claire Bloomfield, NHS England
15:20	Session 2 – part 1: Driving standards and best practice through the UK Health Data Research Alliance

Time	Sessions
	Chaired by David Seymour and Paola Quattroni, Health Data Research UK The development of the Alliance and impact The future of the Alliance, how it will grow and develop Paola Quattroni, HDR UK Developing a technology services ecosystem Phil Quinlan, University of Nottingham
15:40	Break + Marketplace
16.00	Session 2 – part 2 Building trust and transparency in health data infrastructure Andrew Roddam, Our Future Health Improving data interoperability and usability Cheryl Battersby, Imperial College Improving skills and expertise in data science Carole Morris, Public Health Scotland Working session David Seymour, Health Data Research UK
16.45	Session 3: Data Access and Discovery through the Health Data Research Innovation Gateway Chaired by Gerry Reilly, Health Data Research UK
17.20	Closing comments Andrew Morris, Health Data Research UK
17:30	Networking, drinks and canapes
19:00	Close

